

Rainbow Child Care Center, Inc.

Rainbow Child Care Center provides a comprehensive early child development program for Children ages one to five years of age from low-income working families in St. Tammany Parish.

Most Parents work minimum wage jobs or attend school. Many children in our care are from disadvantaged households and need the extra security, stability, and love from our staff to ensure they receive a solid foundation for learning. Rainbow also has a Family Support Program that includes mandatory Parenting Sessions and counseling is available for our families.

East St. Tammany Rainbow Child Care Center, Inc., a non-profit, private corporation, was established in 1983 and is a state licensed Class A facility. Visitors and volunteers are always welcome at our Center.
